General Rules and Guidelines

(For specific rules, and procedural guidelines, please refer <http://goldenbookofrecords.com/category/c/>)

- Golden Book of World Records does not promote or accept attempts or records that can potentially lead to any kind of destruction or harm to property, health, morality or general well-being of an individual/organization/society. Similarly, the record/record attempt should not hurt or cause any kind of injury to any animal/s.
- Approval or disapproval of any attempt of record will be solely the decision of the GBWR team. Record application processing may take up to 30 days from the date of receipt of the application. After processing the application a Record Claim ID and Record specific rules & regulations would be provided.
- GBWR team member need not to be mandatorily present at the time of attempting a record. However, the authenticity of the record should be properly taken care of by having either an /s or/and witness/es at the record attempt location.
- At least two witnesses should be present at the time of attempting the record. The complete details about all the witnesses should be enclosed with the claim documents. All the documents should be duly signed by all the witnesses.
- Approval and certification will be published only after receiving the claim form and the complete process of attempt verification. All claim materials/documents/evidences submitted to GBWR will be a property of GBWR subsequent to the record claim. GBWR is under no obligation to return any kind of claim materials/documents/evidence back to the attempter/attempting organization.
- You can separately apply for adjudication of record by filling the adjudication form.
- Record Application form should be mailed at records@goldenbookofrecords.com clearly mentioning the applicant/s name, address and contact details.
