

On the Spot Official Golden Recognition

What is one the spot official Golden recognition?

Official Golden recognition is a process, by which a Record Event Judge from the Golden Book of World Records team certifies the record attempt and recognizes it in front of the public and media which is present at the time of the attempt. This Records Management Judge (RMJ) is an official representative of the Golden Book of World Records and has the authority to judge the record attempt and certify it so that the Golden Book of World Records official recognizes the attempt. The endorsement of such an RMJ is final and above any kind of dispute.

Can we invite a Records Management Judge?

Yes, a Record Event Judge can be invited to your record attempt with a prior notice. We would like to inform the potential record holders that since there are numerous record attempts and events going round the clock in various parts of the world all the time, it is difficult for the Golden Book of World Records team to be able to respond for such a request instantly. We will be notifying you regarding the availability of a Record Management Judge within 3-4 weeks from the day of your request. Since our RMJs are touring the whole world and the world records are also attempted in the whole world, it is likely that there is a RMJ in your area. The availability of an RMJ can be confirmed with us by e-mail.

Are there any advantages to invite a Record Management Judge?

There are many advantages of inviting a Record Management Judge.

- On the spot recognition
- Authentication of the record event
- Instant verification
- Creation of goodwill
- Positive publicity

Does the Golden Book of World Records provide the successful record attempter with promotional material along with the Official Recognition Certificate?

For a charge of $10, the Golden Book of World Records provides:

- Golden Book of Records T-Shirt
- Golden Book of Records Parking Stickers
- Golden Book of Records Badge
- Along with these, personalized recognition certificate can also be made on a nominal extra charge

Can a record attempter use the logo of Golden Book of World Records for the promotion of his/her event?

The record attempter can use the logo of Golden Book of World Records for the promotion of any record event for a stipulated period of time as agreed by Records Management Team. However, a prior written permission is needed to do the same along with a defined scope for the use of the Golden Book of World Records logo. Failure to do so can result into legal action as violation of copyright.

Is the process of Records Judgment different for mass records?

The process of record management is a little more comprehensive for mass records. A prior permission three months in advance is required along with the details of the record attempt. Golden Book of World Records does not promote, entertain or accept attempts or records that can potentially lead to any kind of destruction or harm to property, health, morality or general well-being of an individual/organization/society. If there is an organization involved in attempting a record, a prior memorandum of understanding is required between the concerned organization and Golden Book of World Records. Since the number of Records Management Judges that would be required for mass records would be more, the process of sending RMJs to the record attempt venue takes a little longer than for individual record attempts.

Please click here for:

Record Attempt Form for Mass Record

Memorandum of Understanding for Mass Record

How much is the charge for inviting a Records Management Judge:

The charge for inviting a Records Management Judge is a nominal $100 for every record attempt. However, in case of mass records, the Record Management and recognition charges depend on the number of participants attempting the mass record since there can be more than one RMJ present at the record attempt. It will be mandatory for the record attempter/attempters or the sponsors of the record event to bear the travel and accommodation of the RMJ as per the norms specified by The Golden Book of World Records.

Does the record attempter have to submit all the relevant documents to the RMJ if he/she is personally present at the venue of the record attempt?

Yes, the record attempter/attempters have to submit all the relevant credentials as demanded by the Record Management Judge. The RMJ can make a few exceptions but as a general rule, record attempters are advised to submit all the documents unless told not to do so.

Why should our organization attempt a Golden Book of World Record (mass record) and get the Golden Recognition and invite a Records Management Judge?

- Social and Health Awareness Events
- Environment friendly Events
- Launching events for Products and Services
- Corporate get-togethers
- Sales and Marketing Events
- Corporate Social Responsibility
- Charitable Events